SECTION TWO

General Principles for International Students Admission

Quotas

ARTICLE 5 - (1) International student quotas are determined through the approval of the Board of Higher Education following the proposals of Faculties and Graduate Schools and the decision of the University Senate and Board of Trustees.

(2) The University has the discretion to fill or not fill its international student quotas. Quota transfers between departments/ programs may be made in cases where deemed necessary, provided that they are carried out in accordance with the legislation.

Tuition Fees

ARTICLE 6 - (1) International student tuition fees are determined by the Board of Trustees every year upon the proposal of the Board of Directors.

English/Turkish language proficiency exam types and minimum scores

ARTICLE 7 - (1) English language proficiency requirement:

a) International students whose applications to Associate, Bachelor's, or Graduate programs where the medium of instruction is English have been approved and who have enrolled will be required to take the OSTİM Technical University English Proficiency Exam on the dates specified in the academic calendar.

b) Enrolled students begin their educations as English Preparatory students until they take the next proficiency exam specified in the academic calendar. Student attendance is mandatory from the date of their enrollment at the University.

c) Students who get a 60 or above from the OSTİM Technical University English Proficiency Exam are exempt from English Preparatory School classes and may start their programs immediately.

d) Students who fail the English Proficiency Exam by scoring 59 or below will continue their studies in the University's English Preparatory Program for one year. At the end of the year, students who succeed will begin the first year of their enrolled programs. Those who fail will be granted an additional year. If they are still unsuccessful at the end of this year, their affiliation with the University will be terminated. The conditions for successfully completing the English Preparatory Program are subject to the provisions of the OSTİM Technical University English Preparatory School Regulations.

e) Students who provide proof of obtaining at least 60 points in the Foreign Language Proficiency Exam (YDS) conducted by ÖSYM, or students who present a certificate of results from other exams deemed equivalent to YDS according to the ÖSYM Foreign Language Exam Equivalence Table (such as CPE, CAE, TOEFL iBT, PTE Academic), with the minimum scores specified in the table below, will be exempt from the preparatory class and may directly begin the first year of their respective programs. TOEFL Home Edition is not valid for exemption from the English Preparatory Program. The minimum scores and validity periods for exemption from the English Preparatory Program are specified in the table below.

Exam	YDS/ e-YDS	YÖKDİL	CPE	CAE	TOEFL-iBT	PTE-Academic
Minimum Score	60	60	C	C	72	55
Validity Period	5 years	5 years	3 years	3 years	2 years	2 years

f) Except for the exams administered by ÖSYM (YDS/e-YDS), the results of other external exams (such as CPE, CAE, TOEFL iBT, PTE Academic) to be used for exemption must be submitted to the University (School of Foreign Languages) in a sealed and stamped envelope or submitted by authorized exam centers to the io@ostimteknik.edu.tr and infoyabanci@ostimteknik.edu.tr email addresses.

g) Applicants whose native language is the language of instruction for the program, or those who have completed undergraduate and/or graduate studies in a country where the program language is the official language, as well as applicants who have graduated from OSTİM Technical University's English Bachelor's programs within the last two years, are not required to submit an English Proficiency Exam result or an English Language Proficiency Certificate when applying to programs where English is the medium of instruction. The English language proficiency of these students may be determined through an interview and, if necessary, a written exam conducted by the School of Foreign Languages and Graduate School.

(2) Turkish language proficiency requirement:

a) International students whose applications have been approved and enrolled in Associate, Bachelor's, or Graduate programs with Turkish as the medium of instruction will be required to take the OSTİM Technical University Turkish Language Proficiency Test (OSTİMTECH TLPT) on the dates specified in the academic calendar.

b) Enrolled students begin their educations as Turkish Preparatory Students until they take the next proficiency exam specified in the academic calendar. Student attendance is mandatory from the date of their enrollment at the University.

c) Students who get a 60 or above from OSTİMTECH TLPT are exempt from Preparatory School Classes and may start their programs immediately.

d) Students with insufficient Turkish language proficiency or those who score below 60 on the OSTİMTECH TLPT will be enrolled in the Turkish Preparatory Class for a one-year period at the University's DİLMER. Students who do not take the OSTİMTECH TLPT will begin their Turkish Preparatory program at the A1 level. At the end of the year, students who succeed will begin the first year of their enrolled program. Those who fail will be given an additional year. If they are still unsuccessful at the end of this year, their affiliation with the University will be terminated. The conditions for successfully completing the Turkish Preparatory Program are subject to the provisions of the OSTİM Technical University Language Teaching, Application and Research Center Regulations.

e) International students who present valid European Language Portfolio (ELP) certificate with a level equivalent to B2 or higher, obtained from Institutions whose Proficiency Certificates are Recognized by the Yunus Emre Institute and the OSTİM Technical University Senate based on reciprocity may be exempt from the Turkish Preparatory Program upon submitting a petition for exemption. These students may directly begin the first year of their respective programs. The current list of institutions approved for Turkish Proficiency Certificates can be accessed on the OSTİM Technical University DİLMER website (<https://www.ostimteknik.edu.tr/dilmer-5799/3749>).

f) The following students will not be required to present any proficiency certificate for Turkish language, and their Turkish proficiency level will be considered sufficient for them to begin their enrolled programs. These students will be exempt from the Turkish Preparatory Program upon submitting a request for exemption and will directly start their program.

- Students who have completed their secondary education in Turkish high schools within Türkiye under the Ministry of National Education.

- Students who have completed their secondary education in Turkish schools established abroad under the Ministry of National Education.

- Students who have completed their secondary education in the Ministry of National Education's Open Education High School Overseas Programs.

- Blue Card holders.

- Students with dual nationality, whose primary or initial nationality is Turkish, but who have also acquired citizenship from another country.

- Students specified under the 'Students Not Required to Apply for Equivalency' clause in the Ministry of National Education's Equivalence Regulation.

g) Applicants who have successfully completed their undergraduate and/or graduate studies in a country where Turkish is the official language, as well as candidates who have graduated from OSTİM Technical University's Turkish Bachelor's programs within the last two years, are not required to submit a Turkish Proficiency Exam/Turkish Language Proficiency Certificate when applying to Graduate programs where Turkish as the medium of instruction. The Turkish language proficiency of these students may be determined through an interview and, if necessary, a written exam conducted by DİLMER and the Graduate School.

Health Insurance

ARTICLE 8 – (1) General Health Insurance (GSS): International students can become covered by General Health Insurance by applying in writing to the Social Security Institution within three months from the date of their initial registration, in accordance with ARTICLE 60 of the Social Insurance and General Health Insurance Law No. 5510. Students who do not make this application within the specified period will not be subject to general health insurance provisions during their studies. Those who have their general health insurance registrations made by the Social Security Institution are responsible for paying the health insurance premium, which is 4% of the minimum wage.

(2) Private Health Insurance: Foreign national students who will obtain a residence permit under the Residence Law are required to have Private Health Insurance. The annual health insurance must be included among the documents required for the residence application. Private Health Insurance for foreign national students is reported to insurance agencies by the Ministry. If the conditions are met, the policy is approved by the Directorate of Migration Management. It is required that the policy includes coverage for both inpatient and outpatient treatments, as well as private health insurance and residence permit. The coverage of Private Health Insurance is only valid for emergency situations at contracted private hospitals. This insurance will cover funeral expenses in the event of the foreign student's death within the territory of the Republic of Türkiye. This type of health insurance is not valid in State Hospitals.

(3) The application of Private Health Insurance for foreign national students is valid until the regulation on the mandatory General Health Insurance comes into effect.
